President's Corner

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

We will celebrate the holidays together at our annual End-of-Year Banquet and Awards Dinner on December 12th at University of Richmond's Jepson Alumni Center. You have just a day or two left to get your tickets from Doug Turner, treasurer, at treasurer@cameraclubofrichmond.com, 16301 Midlothian Turnpike, VA, 23113, so act now in order to attend this special evening of gourmet food, socializing, and awards! Tickets are $45. There will be a reception from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m. followed by dinner from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Although 2018 is winding down, your Camera Club of Richmond board has been busy planning for 2019. We already have speakers and evaluators lined up for our monthly meetings as well as some educational and photoshoot opportunities. The Assigned Subject topics for next year will be:

1. Something Red
2. Night Shots
3. Oh Those Eyes

The idea behind assigned subject evaluations is to challenge yourself creatively to come up with an image that fits the topic. You still have the chance to submit a second image in the "open" category, but your skills as a photographer will be enhanced by trying the assigned category as well.

Please have a safe and happy holiday season!

The Year in Review and a Peak at 2019 Programs

2019 will be an exciting year -- some of the 2018 presenters will be back with new material and a few new evaluators are being added. Here's a look back at our programs in 2018 and a peak at what's coming in the new year

January 2018

Mike Gorman, National Parks Service

History of Richmond after the Civil War, great photos on the effects of the war affecting Richmond.

February 2018

Open Subject Evaluation by David Everette, a good learning experience for our Members.

March 2018

Assigned subject Black-White Photographs by Frank Saunders who provided great tips for this medium.

April 2018

David Everette, Presentation on Image Composition and Design, a good learning experience.

May 2018

Alex Nyerges, VMFA history and photos of some Great Hungarian Photographers.

June 2018

Ken Conger, Nature at its finest, always a great presentation.

July 2018

Assigned subject, Things that don't work. Jessie Boyland from the Art Works. Great learning experience for our Membership. Jessie also talked on how to present your Photos for sale.

August 2018

Open Subject by David Everette, David was at his best giving many suggestions during the evaluation.

September 2018

Open Subject by Andy Klein. Andy always presents a great perspective during his evaluations.

October 2018

Assigned Subject In The Moment, by Anthony Rumley. Anthony did a great evaluation on a difficult subject, many great tips passed on to our Members.

November 2018

Irene Sacilotto, Presentation On Life in the Chesapeake Bay, History on Tangier Island. Great history lesson on Tangier Island, its People and life style and the future of the island.

January 2019

A presentation on the Shenandoah area is planned - this will be a don't miss one!

Skylight Galley Membership photo exhibit held at the Art Works in September was a success, many great photos were displayed. The club will be exhibiting in the Skylight Galley again in September of 2019. Looking forward to another great exhibit.

Thanks to all the members who attended the meetings and entered photos for all the evaluations.

Happy Holidays to everyone and your families!

Education and Activities

Activities & Education

Well, it has been a fun run as your Activities and Education Directors. Thanks for supporting the many programs, activities and classes we're brought to you over the past two years.

We're excited to turn the reins over to one of our newest CCR members and a newcomer to the Richmond area: John Roach. John is an award-winning photographer who both exhibits and teaches photography. You can learn more about him and his work on his Web page:

<http://www.jdroachphotography.com/>

So, you might ask "Are Bruce and Karen riding off into the sunset of "CCR Retirement?" Sorry, pardner - you're not done with us quite yet!

Bruce will be taking over the long-vacant Librarian position on the CCR Board. A pretty fitting move since he was the one who "Macgyvered" – oops – make that "ENGINEERED" - the new Library Cart!

And, Karen will become the new CCR Marketing/ Communications Director. Her mission will be to:

"...oversee and send all communications (with the exception of the Southern Exposure newsletter) on behalf of other Board members to the general Club membership. This individual will work with the Webmaster to manage the content of the Website. S/he will oversee the MeetUp site and update content as requested by the Activities/Education Director(s). The Marketing/Communications Director will administer the club's Facebook page and make updates on a regular basis. This individual will seek and manage outside alliances with other clubs, organizations, schools and/or businesses that might be beneficial to the Club or its members. S/he will be responsible for outreach to existing, past and potential new members including general club correspondence (such as invitations, sympathy, sickness, thank you notes, etc)."

If you have ideas or suggestions, please let us know!

With the hustle and bustle of the holidays and CCR's big event of the year – the wonderful evening planned at the University of Richmond for our Dinner and Awards Celebration – we are not planning other activities for December.

However, we couldn't miss an opportunity to share some ideas for holiday pictures to try with your family and friends and kids and grandkids!
