CAMERA CLUB of RICHMOND

May 2017

President's Corner

April showers bring May...Ospreys! If you have not heard, the ospreys on the James River have three eggs, one of which hatched this week! You can follow their action live at richmondoutside.com.

For Camera Club of Richmond, our May meeting brings Anthony Rumley for another evaluation session. This is an open category month. You may submit a total of two images, either digital or print.

I hope you were present at last month's training session with Jeff Claypoole on sizing and preparing digital images for evaluation. If not, you can find rules on the CCR website. You must submit images no later than Saturday, May 6th by 11:59 pm preferably earlier for our May meeting on the 10th.

June will be our first assigned subject, "Natural Framed Images."

May also brings us to our new venue at Chamberlayne United Methodist Church at 6100 Chamberlayne Road. We may need volunteers to help set up chairs and tables before the meeting, as well as tear-down afterwards, so if you can come a little early and/or stay late to help, it would be appreciated.

Good shooting,

Vice President Corner

Anthony Rumley will be our evaluator in May

Anthony Rumley has consented to be our evaluator at the May 10 meeting. We look forward to his insightful and constructive comments based on his extensive career as a professional photographer. Anthony is a Master Photographer, Certified Professional Photographer and Photographic Craftsman dedicated to art of photography.

He has owned and operated his studio in Richmond for over 20 years. He has been rewarded with merit prints for many years through the Virginia Professional Photographers Association and the Professional Photographers of America. Kodak and Fuji Corporations have recognized Anthony's professional excellence with both Kodak Gallery and Fuji Masterpiece awards. His work has been recognized and published in both local and international publications.

Anthony is a wonderful supporter of The Camera Club of Richmond, having volunteered many times as an evaluator, and we truly appreciate his contributions to the club. Anthony's community involvement has been recognized with a profile in the Business Section of the Richmond Times Dispatch. Community involvement includes donations to many local charities and schools.

Anthony is the Local Area Coordinator for the Now I Lay Me Down To Sleep organization. The NILMDTS (non-profit) organization provides professional photography services to families whose newborns are not expected to live. This organization creates images to celebrate the life of a child no matter how long or short it may be. All photographers are invited to donate their time and talent to those families requesting their services.

Activities & Education

“Spring is sprung, the grass is ris. I wonders where the Activities is?”

Just keep reading and you might find something to break the monotony of the winter doldrums. So, grab your shorts, a breezy top, a comfortable pair of shoes...and don't forget your camera...it is time for outdoor adventure!

Upcoming Events:

May Mini-Module: Why You Should Title a Photograph?

When:

6:15 PM, Wednesday, May 10, 2017, Camera Club of Richmond Monthly Meeting

Where:

Chamberlayne Heights United Methodist Church
6100 Chamberlayne Road
Richmond, VA 23227

What:

Why Title a Photograph is a question newbies to photography ponder. But the greater question might be “HOW to Title a Photograph”? One question is “Philosophical” and the other can be more “Analytical” or “Creative”. Our May Pre-Meeting “Mini-Module” will be presented by CCR's Activities Director, Bruce Murff. He will share some facts, fiction and folklore concerning the titling of photographs. As time permits, and to get the grey matter energized, he will present some photos and lead a group photo naming effort.

Arts in the Park

(This is not an official CCR Meetup, but several club members plan to attend.)

When:

Saturday & Sunday, May 6-7, 2017

Where:

The Carillon in Byrd Park

What:

Arts in the Park is a nationally-rated outdoor art show. The exhibit has been a celebration of creativity for over forty years. It takes place on the Mall, and in the shaded groves of Byrd Park surrounding the Carillon.

Governor's Antiques & Architectural Materials

When:

1:00-4:00 PM, Tuesday, May 16, 2017

Where:

Governor's Antiques & Architectural Materials
8000 Antique Lane
Mechanicsville, VA 23116

What:

Governor's Antiques is a Wabi-Sabi Paradise!

What is Wabi-Sabi? Wabi-Sabi is the quintessential Japanese aesthetic. It is a beauty of things imperfect, impermanent, and incomplete. It is a beauty of things modest and humble. And, it's one of CCR's "Assigned Subjects" this year; planned for our October meeting.

If you love to photograph odds and ends this place is amazing! It is full of all kinds of old antiques and home renovation products. Governor's is one of the most complete antique complexes with 7 acres and 50,000 square feet under roof. There are few places where can you find a Civil War musket, an antique light fixture dating back 200+ years, miles of wrought iron fencing and gates, 400+ claw foot bath tubs, hundreds of doors, windows, and mantels, 1950's and 60's fully restored jukeboxes, a 3 carat diamond ring, and a gorgeous Rolex watch all in the same location. It is a creative and macro photographer's dream and they are graciously allowing us to photograph it all. There are photo opportunities at every turn.

Dominion Riverrock

(This is not an official CCR Meetup, but several club members plan to attend.)

When:

Friday, Saturday & Sunday - May 19-21, 2017

Where:

Brown's Island, Richmond, VA

What:

What better way to celebrate the Richmond riverfront than at the nation's largest outdoor sports and music festival?! From music to mud pits, bikes to beer, SUPs to pups, and climbing to kayaks, it's uniquely RVA!
